Statement

The next Summit meeting of Commonwealth Heads of Government (CHOGM) will be held at Nicosia and Limassol in Cyprus from 21-25 October, 1993.

The agenda for the Cyprus CHOGM Summit is under preparation by the Commonwealth Secretariat. However, as indicated in the Harare CHOGM Declaration which sets out the priorities for the Commonwealth in various fields, Commonwealth countries are committed to consulting and cooperating in the interests of their peoples and in the promotion of international understanding and world peace. India fully ascribes to these goals.

It is not customary for bilateral issues to be raised at Commonwealth Summits. As such, Government do not propose to raise the question of Pakistan's support to terrorism at that forum. However, it may be recalled that the Harare Summit Communique had expressed strong condemnation of terrorism in all its forms and had recognised terrorism as one of the most dangerous and pernicious threats to stability and to human rights.
